Observations of the committee:

1. The Committee observed that the College has fifteen faculty members out of which 12 are appointed after following the due process of selection, and only two are appointed on contractual basis. This is well within the norms and was appreciated by the Committee.
3. The College Management gave a power point presentation of the activities performed in the College in the past session, highlighting its achievements in academics and sports.
4. The Committee visited the library and found that adequate books and Journals have been subscribed by the College.
5. The Committee found that the College has complied with the deficiencies pointed out by earlier ~~the~~ inspection team, which visited the college in last session.
6. The Committee asked the College to pay salary as per norms and ^{give} regular increments to the faculty appointed through selection committee.
7. The College has organised numerous activities including inter college seminar, poster making competition, heritage week, blood donation camp, guest lectures , exhibition on teaching aids etc.

The Committee recommends that the temporary affiliation may be extended in favour of Bhartiya College of Education for the session 2016-17 and the college must comply with deficiencies as pointed out by inspection team, if any.
